

Cold Springs
Landmarks

Cola 2 bind.
Panmark

List of: MIDWAY COLD SPRINGS

Names:

Big Spring

Bircumshaw

Cascade Springs

Midway Spring (city)

Gerber Spring

Coleman Hot Spring (Skinny Dipping) ("Warmlands")

Indian Spring (HBUM p. 768)

Sessions

Hamilton Spring -- Provo Valley Trout Co-- Fish Hatchery

Huber Spring

Fish Hatchery Spring

La Venie Spring

Springer Spring

Mahogany "

Wilson

Nephi Probst

John Sulser

Sloo Spring

Calvin Probst Spring

Andrew Burgener

Homestead Spring ^{hot} cold ?

Derkes hole

HBUM

FGS

Pict.

Hist.

REF: 1. Forrest Map
2. HBUM pp 768

DR. R. R. GREEN
375 E. 2ND ST. NO.
HEBER CITY, UTAH
84032

Cold Sp

Make a Map of Midway Is & Socotra Then 2/1
— cold & flat

References: BUNN 391-6

Fish Gathering
List of spawning
" gathering
Take Max North Zone

Get
Pics
of every spawning

Bircumshaw Creek
Bircumshaw Springs

MIDWAY BIOGRAPHIES

JOHN WILLARD AND MARY
JANE WHITE BIRCUMSHAW

John Willard Bircumshaw and his wife, Mary Jane White Bircumshaw, were married in Salt Lake City, October 22, 1876. They moved to Midway July 6, 1888, living on a farm they purchased from Vern Halliday. Their purpose in coming to Midway was to improve John's health, as outdoor living had been prescribed for him. Bircumshaw Creek is named for this family.

Two of their children, Laura and Myrtle, were gifted with beautiful singing voices, and took part in many musical programs and events throughout the valley for many years.

Children born to John and Mary Bircumshaw included:

Laura, married to Ephraim M. Mohlman
Myrtle, married to William Quinn and later Joseph Bassett

Joseph, married Annie O'Brian
Jennie, married William Gillette
Willard, married May Burns
Henry, married Mary Sullivan
Albert, married Lillian Beatty
Ray, married Elva Hendrickson
Ruth, never married

JOHN WILLARD AND MARY
JANE WHITE BIRCUMSHAW

John Willard Bircumshaw and his wife, Mary Jane White Bircumshaw, were married in Salt Lake City, October 22, 1876. They moved to Midway July 6, 1888, living on a farm they purchased from Vern Halliday. Their purpose in coming to Midway was to improve John's health, as outdoor living had been prescribed for him. Bircumshaw Creek is named for this family.

Two of their children, Laura and Myrtle, were gifted with beautiful singing voices, and took part in many musical programs and events throughout the valley for many years.

Children born to John and Mary Bircumshaw included:

Laura, married to Ephraim M. Mohlman
Myrtle, married to William Quinn and later Joseph Bassett

Joseph, married Annie O'Brian
Jennie, married William Gillette
Willard, married May Burns
Henry, married Mary Sullivan
Albert, married Lillian Beatty
Ray, married Elva Hendrickson
Ruth, never married.

